Two good acts were seen by the patrons of the Pavilion last night, one being an excellent laughing act and the other a sensational trapeze act. The trapeze act, known as The Geers, is exceptionally good, most of the stunts by them being new and including tricks in which they swing out over the audience.

After doing a number of stunts, the male member of the act takes a short rest in a rocking chair, the rest being taken while he is balanced in the rocking chair on the trapeze. Kenley and Parks, the comedy act, present a little of everything and offer a very enjoyable act, consisting of singing, dancing, comedy boxing and jokes. In the picture, entitled "Nan's Diplomacy," picture fans will see one of their favorite players, Miss Florence Lawrence.
